

Population per Private Household

This map illustrates the average population per household in each Changwat. There is not a whole lot of variation throughout the country, having only a range of 1.5. The Changwat with the lowest people per household is Samut Prakan with about 3.2. The Changwat with the most people per household is Pattani with about 4.7.

South East Asia

This map has been produced by Calvin College, Department of Geology, Geography, and Environmental Studies. It is provided free of any charge as a service to global communities and can be distributed freely. Changes and alterations are not allowed. No warranty is given for this map as to accuracy and is based on available data. Created in Spring 2009.

Data source: Thailand Census, 2000